

The Northwest Missourian

Northwest Missouri State Teachers College

VOLUME 17

MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1931

Illiteracy Is Not High in This Area

Survey Shows Northwest Missouri Counties Are More Literate Than Average.

The latest illiteracy statistics for the State of Missouri sent out by Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, chairman of the National Advisory Committee on Illiteracy, Washington, D. C., gives 67,905 as the number of persons 10 years of age and over, unable to read and write.

There are 39,252 native white illiterates, 11,183 foreign-born white illiterates, 16,532 Negro illiterates and 938 illiterates of other races in the state.

Missouri counties which have fewer than 100 illiterates in their borders are: Worth, 42; DeKalb, 60; Scotland, 73; Caldwell, 84; Knox, 86; Clark, 87; Mercer, 87; Schuyler, 91; and Holt, 97.

Data by Counties.

Counties in Missouri which have more than 1,000 illiterates in their borders are: Saline 1,089; Buchanan, 1,094; Washington 1,233; Stoddard 1,297; St. Francis 1,315; Dunklin 2,029; St. Louis, 2,082; New Madrid 2,188; Pemiscot 2,765; Jackson 5,907; and St. Louis 12,331.

The number of illiterates in the nineteen counties in Northwest Missouri is as follows: Worth, 42; DeKalb, 60; Caldwell, 84; Mercer, 87; Holt, 97; Clinton, 111; Grundy, 118; Harrison, 119; Atchison, 131; Gentry, 143; Platte, 155; Daviess, 163; Andrew, 164; Livingston, 173; Carroll, 181; Nowaday, 199; Clay, 335; Ray, 459; and Buchanan 1,094.

Among the States of the Union, Missouri ranks 14th with 2.3 per cent of illiteracy while Iowa with 0.8 per cent, Oregon with 1.0 per cent, Washington with 1.0 per cent, Idaho with 1.1 per cent, Kansas with 1.2 per cent, Nebraska with 1.2 per cent and South Dakota with 1.3 per cent of illiteracy head the list of states for having the smallest per cent of illiteracy.

Worse in South.

The States in the U. S. which have the greatest proportion of illiteracy are South Carolina with 14.9 per cent, Louisiana with 13.5 per cent, New Mexico with 13.3 per cent, Mississippi 13.1 per cent, Alabama with 12.6 per cent, and Arizona with 10.1 per cent.

The total number of illiterates in the United States is given as 4,283,753 which is 4.3 per cent of the total population.

First President of Board of Regents Gives Address

The program given at the assembly period last week was greatly appreciated according to the statements of a large number of students. It was conceded by many to be one of the best in the last two years.

Charles J. Golden, first president of the Board of Regents of the College and one time editor of the Maryville paper, now of Los Angeles, spoke on the false impressions that many Americans have in regard to foreigners. He mentioned the lack of consideration that so many American tourists show toward their foreign hosts.

The last part of the period was given over to several numbers presented by students enrolled in the music department. Junior Porterfield played two numbers on the piano, Edson Miller sang two character songs, the newly formed Y. M. C. A. quartet sang two numbers, and Miss Genevieve Miller ended the program with a soprano solo.

Y. W. Had Full Calendar During the Last Week

The Y. W. C. A. has had a full calendar during the last few weeks. On Sunday, October 11, the association entertained at the hut with a tea for faculty members and other Maryville people.

At the meeting October 13, initiation ceremonies were held for new members. The beautiful candle service was conducted by the president, Gladys Cooper, and the vice-president, Lucille Leeson.

On October 14 a joint meeting with the Y. M. C. A. was held.

The Halloween party at the Hut was held last Friday.

The Sunday afternoon discussion on October 18, was on the subject of Friendship.

GUESS WHO?

The character in last week's guess who corner was Richard Barrett. This week's edition of guess who is quite prominent on the campus but more prominent on second floor of the administration building. He is rather tall, a brunette, very business-like, and sociable, especially with the opposite sex. His weaknesses are, first a special interest, in the primary department; second, baseball games; and third, a good looking automobile.

WELCOME TEACHERS

The College extends greetings and a welcome to alumni, former students and others, who will be in attendance at the teachers meeting at the College, Thursday and Friday, October 22-23.

It is hoped that those who attend will enjoy the entire program which has been planned and that their stay in Maryville will be a pleasant one.

Dr. Dildine Speaks

The Convention of Women's Federation Clubs convened October 16, at Trenton. Dr. Dildine of the College faculty, accompanied by Mrs. Dildine and delegates from the local club, attended the convention. Dr. Dildine addressed the group Friday evening October 16.

College Brevities

Miss Eleanor Nicholas, B. S., '31, who is teaching at White City, Kan., was at the College last Friday. She says "Say Boy! There isn't a word in that Northwest Missourian that I don't read!"

Miss Nicholas likes her work fine and says that they call her the "Music Teacher," although she thought that her major work was to be home economics when she accepted the position.

One of the second grade pupils of the College Training School encountered the word "vegetables" for the first time in her reading. The practice teacher in an effort to help her said "What do we call carrots, cabbage, onions, and potatoes?" The immediate answer was, "Hash!"

Lost and found articles are usually turned in to W. A. Rickenbrode's office at the College. Students who have lost articles might find them in that office.

A special edition of the Maryville Daily Forum giving the complete program and highlights of the Northwest Missouri District Teachers Association meeting to be held here at the College, Thursday and Friday, October 22-23, was sent to all of the teachers in Northwest Missouri Saturday, October 17.

R. W. Edmisten, who has been teaching in the College for some time, is now teaching in Nashville, Tenn., at George Peabody College.

Carl Schowengerdt instructor in agriculture at the College, made a trip with some friends into Nebraska and Iowa last Sunday. Concerning the bluffs around Council Bluffs, Mr. Schowengerdt thinks that if the people there would take a shovel and level those hills off they would have some good farming land, since the soil is loess in nature or composition. As they are he says that nothing but mountain goats can stick on them.

Concerning the Bearcats Coach Davis says, "our boys may be outplayed sometimes, but there is one thing sure—they never will quit fighting or lie down on the job."

Burl Zimmerman, a former M. S. T. C. student, now taking architectural engineering courses at Kansas Agricultural and Mechanical Arts College at Manhattan, Kan., was in Maryville for the week-end and called at the College to see friends. Mr. Zimmerman, whose home is at Raton, N. M., is working part time for the College there, likes his work and studies very much.

The editorial "Extra Curricular Activities," which appeared in the Northwest Missourian for last week, was written by Wilbur Heekin.

E. Claude Shaffer M. S. T. C. student has sent in his Alumni Association dues and asked for the back numbers of the Northwest Missourian. He says that he plans to see the Bearcats in action sometime before the football season is over. His address in Kansas City is 916 East Armour St.

Miss Lois Roper, a graduate of the College, in sending in her Alumni dues sends best wishes to the College and asks that she be sent the Northwest Missourian. Her address is Y. W. C. A., St. Joseph.

Forensic Union.

At the meeting last week of Forensic Union, parliamentary law was simplified through a parliamentary game. The meeting this Wednesday will be devoted to open forum discussion on several topics of interest to the modern student.

Fine Arts Club

The Fine Arts Club entertained with a Social Hour Thursday night in Dr. Painter's room at the College. Twenty guests were present and all reported a very enjoyable evening. Pop-corn and apples were served.

Members of Tower Staff Are Chosen

Only Two or Three Positions on Year Book Unfilled—Queens Are Selected.

The Tower Staff for the 1931-'32 year book is now complete with the exception that the women's athletics editor and the freshman assistants have not been selected and the various editors must be approved by the junior class.

Following are the students who will bear the burden of building the book: Editor-in-Chief, Miss Maude Qualls, Maryville; business manager, Clarence Woolsey, Braymer; assistant editor, Miss Ruth Vansant, Shenandoah, Iowa; art editor, William Stillwell, Maryville; feature editor, Miss Betty Hickernell, Maryville; student organization editor, Miss Dorothy Whitmore, Bethany; men's athletics editor, Raymond Mitchell, Sedalia; sophomore assistants, Miss Margaret Maxwell, of Carmeron, Miss Vera Moore of New Hampton, and Arthur Brewer of Maryville.

A committee consisting of two faculty members, the editor and business manager of the Tower, and the president of the junior class, selects the assisting editors and then these are approved by the junior class of the College.

The eight queens selected by the four college classes recently were: Senior class, Miss Flora Schefsky of Graham, and Miss Faye Board of Fairfax; junior class, Miss Esther McMurry of Maryville, and Miss Maxine Hudson, of St. Albans; sophomore class, Miss Fayne Stankering of Gravit, Ia., and Miss Velma Dowis, of Sheridan; freshman class, Miss Emma Ruth Bellows, of Maryville, and Miss Elizabeth Barrow, of Savannah.

The photograph of the girls will be sent to James Montgomery Flagg, noted magazine illustrator, in New York, who will select the four photographs which he thinks are the best for the 1931-'32 Tower.

Music Department to Play Big Part in Convention

The Music Department of the College will have a prominent place in the Teachers Convention here Thursday and Friday. At the first general session, on Thursday morning, the College Chorus, the women's and men's glee clubs, under the direction of Mr. Gardner, will appear at eight-thirty.

At the second general session Thursday afternoon, Miss Ruth Morris, violinist; and Mr. Schuster, tenor, will appear on the program.

At the third and fourth general sessions the Northwest Missouri District Orchestra, directed by Mr. Hickernell, will play.

During the fifth general session, on Friday afternoon, Miss Barton, pianist, will play several numbers.

Rehearsals For Three Act Play Well Under Way

Rehearsals for the three act play, "The Rose of El Monte," to be given October 29 are now well under way.

The following producing staff is working hard to make this play a huge success: producer, Orville C. Miller; student director, Ernest Stallings; wardrobe mistress, Fayne Pickering; make-up artist, Doris Wallace; assistant make-up artists, Maxine Wood and Cecile Gist; electrician, Edson Miller; assistant electricians, Wilbur Heekin and Inez Ebersole; scenic artist, Carl Leroy Fisher; assistant scenic artists, Harold Knox and James Jackson; publicity, Margaret Coffman; property man, Marion Gibbons; assistant property men, Russell Noblet and Elizabeth Barrow; and house manager, Elizabeth Hindman.

THIS IS YOUR PAPER

Help Make It a Good One by Writing Up Events You Know About

Articles or stories for the Northwest Missourian must be handed in at room 212 not later than Saturday of each week. Last minute announcements for the calendar or the like may be turned in not later than 12 o'clock on Mondays. All students or others at the College are invited to write for the paper. One of the best editorials written by students will be printed in the paper each week. The editorial must be short, preferably less than 150 words in length. It should also be directly applicable to affairs of the College if possible.

Miss Smith Undergoes Operation.

Miss Dora B. Smith, member of the College Training School Faculty, who recently underwent an operation at Research Hospital in Kansas City, is reported to be getting along very well, according to reports. Miss Smith expects to leave the hospital soon and will probably be back at the College to take up her teaching duties in a few days.

Over the Library Desk

The Pageant of America

College students and others can consider themselves fortunate in that the College library owns a set of "The Pageant of America," a pictorial history of the United States in 15 volumes, published by the Yale University Press, 1925-1929. The Yale University Press is known for the high character of its publications.

High school, as well as college libraries, find these volumes particularly helpful as a collection of source material for students; for they contain the rare and unobtainable rather than the ordinary historical events.

Almost twelve thousand pictures, portraits, maps, old charts and photographs have been gathered. The sketches accompanying the illustrations flow into an interesting and readable narrative. The student who comes to find a reference remains to read. True and sound history becomes popularized with no loss to the history.

Representative titles of volumes include Adventures in the Wilderness, Lure of the Frontier, American Idealism, The American Spirit in Art, The American Stage, and Annals of American Sports.

"The Pageant of America" is shelved in the browsing room in the College library and is accessible to students at all times.

Win in Contest

The word came Saturday that Paschal Monk, a graduate of the College who is now teaching music in the Clarinda, Iowa, public schools, won first in the recent Council Bluffs District, Atwater-Kent radio audition voice contest, while Miss June Vogt of Bedford, Iowa, won first among the women entries.

Miss Vogt, who is a niece of O. G. Vogt of Maryville has had all of her voice work with Mr. Schuster of the College Conservatory of Music while Mr. Monk who was graduated from the College before Mr. Schuster came has had studied some with him.

Mr. Schuster says that the students will probably take part in the state contest which may be held in Des Moines, Iowa.

Program Is Given at Dramatic Club Meeting

The Dramatic Club met Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in Social Hall. According to those present it was one of the best programs which has been presented for the club.

Marion Gibbons played a guitar solo and as an encore he played, and sang, "Crying Myself To Sleep," "The Old Fashioned Girl," and "Down The River of Golden Dreams."

Miss Gladys Cooper gave a discussion entitled, "The Actor And His Costume." Miss Marjorie Drake gave the reading "Jane" from the book "Seventeen" by Booth Tarkington. The next number was a Japanese Slave Dance, by Junior Cox, a talented pupil at the Eugene Field School who was trained by Miss Cleola Dawson, a graduate of the College, now teaching in the Maryville public schools. The club will meet next Thursday at the same hour.

Business Students Get Practical Data

Class Room Theory Is Supplemented by Daily Reports From Trade Centers.

Class room theory in economics and commercial subjects, is being supplemented by practical information, which is posted daily on the bulletin board at the entrance to the commerce office, located at the east-end of the hall on first floor of the administration building at the college.

Sources from which information is secured include: Babson's weekly report on economic conditions; Daily Ticker Forecast, which is a report on individual stocks on the New York Stock Exchange, from brokerage firms of Winthrop, Mitchell and Company; and Harris Uphan and Company; economic reports from Commerce Clearing House, Inc., Chicago, Hornblower and Weeks, and C. S. Bache and Company; Monthly report of Federal Reserve Bank in Kansas City and report of Federal Reserve Board in Washington, D. C.

In addition to these services the bulletin board contains clippings from newspapers and magazine articles on outstanding economic problems, such as the gold standard and silver issue, debt system, cancellation of war debts, and national credit corporation.

Students are watching carefully the latest pronouncements of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, American Federation of Labor, Stock Exchange, etc. Special attention is being paid to recent foreign developments in Germany, England, and the Far East, and students are collecting data on these topics.

The classes also receive literature from Richard Whitney, president of the New York Stock Exchange, David Lawrence, editor of U. S. Daily, and other sources.

This work is conducted under the supervision of E. W. Mounce, chairman of the Department of Commerce and Business Administration.

Bearcats Expect Hard Battle With Rolla Grid Team

By defeating the Cape Girardeau Indians 38 to 0, last Friday night the Bearcats passed the halfway mark in the long and rough path to a conference championship, with but two more victories necessary for high honors.

This year's game between Cape and Maryville was much the same as that of last year, with everything going in favor of the much more powerful Bearcat team. Passes flew thick and fast through the air, with enough off-tackle slants and smashes intermingled to result in six touchdowns, and two extra points.

Within the first five minutes of play the Bearcats scored a touchdown on a plunge by Milner. They scored twice again in the first half, and with most of the substitutes in during the last half an equal number of touchdowns were pushed across.

Friday night of this week the Bearcats meet perhaps the strongest competition they have encountered thus far this year when the Rolla Miners play on the local gridiron. While the Miners rolled up a big score in the last meeting of the two teams, the Bearcat record this year has been impressive enough to warrant a close battle. Rolla is reported to have a powerful team with a smashing attack, which the Bearcats will probably try to overcome with a barrage of passes. Last week-end Rolla was defeated by St. Louis University 7 to 0.

The following men made the trip to Cape: Sullivan, Moore, W. Dowell, Mahood, Sullivan, Dunham, R. Dowell, Hedge, Egdorf, Smith, Stalcup, Hodges and Sheldon, linesmen; H. Fischer, Milner, Hodgkinson, Phelps, Mitchell, Furse, and W. Parker, backfield men.

Plan Biology Trip.

W. T. Garrett, chairman of the Biology Department at the College, reports that the biology class 102a, and other biology students of the College plan to take a trip to the Zoological Gardens in Kansas City, next Saturday, for the purpose of studying animals which are not prevalent in this territory.

Miss White Honored.

Miss Helen White of Gilman City, who is a senior at the College, recently received notice that the Greenleaf school in Nebraska, which she has been teaching has for the third time been awarded the banner prize on an exhibit of school work. The school prizes five first prizes, eleven second prizes and a special prize for art. Premiums were recently awarded by the Butler County Fair Association in David City, Neb.

FOOTBALL Homecoming Game Rolla Miners

M. S. T. C. Bearcats (Some Battle)

Friday Night 8 o'Clock.

ADM. 75 Cents.

Don't forget the Alumni and former student Rally, 6:30-7:30 Friday evening before this game.

STROLLER

A certain college student whose home is not far away and whose first name is Byron, says that he has quite a time keeping the bills announcing the Bearcat football games up. He says that he picks out a nice place for them over in B. J. and then some other neighboring college representative comes along and lays the Bearcat card down and hangs up a card advertising activities at his school. So Byron goes around the next day after he has placed the cards or bills up and proceeds to take the other college game down and places the Bearcat cards where he had them in the first place.

Perhaps the reader hasn't found a morale in this little story yet, but someone suggests "it is pretty hard to beat M. S. T. C. when her students pull her as they do."

The Stroller is hustling around, expecting to see everybody at the Teachers meeting. There is no telling how many good looking girls will be here besides the good looking ones that he is certain are coming.

The Stroller is sorry for Europe and everybody in trouble, but he certainly wishes to congratulate the Bearcats on their thus far successful tryouts for the Championship.

While he doesn't wish the Rolla Miners any strikes or the like, still he hopes that the "prospecting" here will be plenty tough for them Friday night.

Since an upper classman in her deep meditation as she wended her way down the "long walk" recently after one of the big showers suddenly attempted to put a reverse on a swanee dive into one of the largest sidewalk cup pools of water, it has been suggested—if nothing else can be found for freshmen to do, that they be allowed to correct the deficiencies in the old walk. At least it has been hinted that some of the beginning College students might do guard duty for a time immediately after showers and sweep the pools of rainwater from the sidewalk.

Mr. Colden to Mr. Cook—"Why T. H. you don't look a day older than you did the day we stole those watermelons."

Write a Tribute

If M. S. T. C. students will contribute some "Tributes to Dad," the best two or three of the tributes will be printed in the Northwest Missourian. The tributes must be turned in for the paper before Saturday, October 24, and they should be less than 200 words in length.

Mr. Cooper Addresses Institute

The Joint County Institute for Sheridan and Dawes counties Nebraska, ended last Thursday and Friday at Chadron, Nebraska. During the forenoon of both days time was devoted to lectures on Vitalized Agriculture, given by Bert Cooper of the College. The Institute teachers manifested much interest in the course which Mr. Cooper has been conducting for three consecutive years. A number of teachers from Nebraska have taken this course at the college.

INVITE YOUR DAD.

Students who have not invited their Dads to attend Dads' Day at the College Friday, October 30, should do so at once. It makes no difference or not whether your Dad has new shoes, tie or suit, you just tell him to hustle along and come down here for at least some and have a good time for as part of the day. A goodly number of Dads may not know a whole lot about the technique of College life, but the greater per cent of them know something about paying bills and taxes.

Dads' Day Will Be Celebrated Friday

President Lamkin and Dr. Mehus Extend Invitations—Program Is Announced.

The following program has been arranged for the Dads of the M. S. T. C. students Friday, as guests of the students and faculty:

10:00-12:00 a. m., Registration in the Social Hall on second floor of the Administration Building. Tickets for the banquet will be distributed. The forenoon will be spent in sightseeing around the campus.

12:30, Dads' Day Banquet.
3:00 p. m.—Play in the College Auditorium provided by the Department of Speech.

6:00 p. m., The Dads will have their evening meal with their sons and daughters.

8:00 p. m., Football game between the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College and the Missouri University "B" team.

Dr. Mehus in his letter of invitation and welcome to the Dads to be the guests of the College on next Friday asks them to be sure to make reservations for the banquet and the football game, as soon as possible.

President Lamkin's letter addressed to the fathers of the students now in school inviting them to attend the activities of the day follows:

"We are celebrating Dad's Day on Friday, October 30. It is with great pleasure that I extend to you a cordial invitation to be the guests of the College on that day. We want you to become better acquainted with your College and the faculty that is directing the welfare of your children. The faculty too is desirous of coming in closer contact with the parents of our students. We hope that you will be able to come and that your visit will be a happy occasion for fathers, students and faculty."

Cordially yours,
"Uel W. Lamkin, President."

President Lamkin Gives Address in Minnesota

President Lamkin returned to Maryville Sunday morning from a trip to Minnesota where he made addresses at the general and divisional sessions of the District Teachers Association meeting held at Crookston, Minn.

The Winona State Teachers College and the Mankato State Teachers College held their joint meeting at Crookston.

The subject on which President Lamkin spoke was "The Relation of Education to the Federal Government."

Dr. Lamkin also visited the State Teachers College at Moorhead, Minn., where Byron Murray a former student of the College is teaching.

Minnesota teachers hold a State meeting only every other year, alternating with the District Meeting.

Will Give Exhibition

The Women's Physical Education department will give an exhibition between halves of the football game Friday night. The first group of exercises are the West Point Setting Up Exercises, which will be done to the music of "Stars and Stripes Forever," played by the Artillery band. The second group will be natural exercises, done to the music, "Missouri Waltz." There will be approximately 250 girls participating, and they will wear the regulation green gym suits. These girls have been trained by Miss Martindale, Miss Weiss, Miss Marsh. These exercises are quite difficult, especially the West Point Setting Up exercises, and the girls have spent considerable time in preparation.

At the assembly on Wednesday, October 28, there will be a music program given by the students of the conservatory of the college. This program has been especially arranged for the students, but the public is invited.

RESPONSIBILITY.

Now that the excitement and ballyhoo of the campaigns are fading into the background, it is timely to issue a warning to students to keep up their interest in student government and student politics. We have elected a student government to express our will on the issues that will confront the student body during the year. Our interest in the manner in which these responsibilities are discharged should not lag, however but should remain to act as a pressure on our representatives throughout the year. On the other hand the student body should be kept informed about the proceedings of the student council. If you have an issue in mind that would properly merit the attention of the council it is your duty to see your class representative about it. Let's get together to make this student government a real success, and let's not shirk our obvious responsibility in the matter.

WILBUR HECKIN.

Eight Important Elections Will Be Conducted Soon

Three Governors and Five Representatives Are to Be Chosen.

Washington, Oct. 20.—(P)—Elections which may have important echoes in national politics will be made by the voters two weeks from today, when three states elect governors and five vacancies are filled in the house of representatives.

Although the issues are preponderantly local, and only scattered sections will vote at all, the situation has three aspects related to the national picture.

With the house standing today 214 Republicans, 214 Democrats, and one Farmer-Labor, an upset in any district in favor of the Democrats might well mean a Democratic house. Three of the five districts electing are traditionally Republican, and two are traditionally Democratic.

May Affect Senate.

Should a Democrat be elected governor of New Jersey, and should he decide to call a special election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Morrow, it might mean a Democratic senate. The membership stands today, 47 Republicans, 47 Democrats, and one Farmer-Labor. Governor Larson of New Jersey is expected to appoint a Republican successor to Senator Morrow before congress convenes.

Overwhelming victory or defeat for the constitutional amendments sponsored in New York State by Governor Roosevelt—and particularly the amendment opposed by former Governor Smith—would be hailed as an important commentary on Roosevelt's candidacy for president.

Finally, the emergence of some new political leader always is a possibility when elections are held in time of unsettlement. Already the friends of former Governor Moore of New Jersey are talking about a Democratic presidential boom for him if he again lands in the governor's chair at Trenton.

Publications Edited by Graduates Are Received

H. T. Phillips, chairman of the Education Department of the College, calls attention to two new publications or papers which have come to his desk. "The Office Chatter" is the name of one of the publications which bears the picture of the Gower high school building on its cover page and is edited in the office of F. L. Skalth, superintendent of schools at Gower. It will be published monthly.

The other publication edited in the office of the superintendent of schools at Webster Groves is, "Views and News." Willard E. Goslin is superintendent of schools there.

These publications and others similar in nature will probably come regularly

No More Neuritis

n Arms, Neck, Legs or Thighs

If you want to get rid of the agonizing pains of neuritis, neuralgia, sciatica or rheumatism, just apply Tylenol to the affected part and see how quickly all misery will cease.

Tylenol is a powerfully penetrating absorbent, soothing and healing in its action, which goes in through the pores and quickly reaches the burning, aching nerves. Those stubborn pains in the back of the neck, about the shoulder blade, face or head, in the forearm and fingers, or extending down the thigh to the toe tips, will soon disappear. Cramping of the muscles will stop and you will no longer be bothered with soreness, swelling, stiffness, numbness or tenderness of the joints and ligaments.

Tylenol is not an ordinary liniment or ointment, but a scientific new emollient that is entirely different from anything you have ever used. Don't suffer any longer. Get a supply of Tylenol at any good drug store. Always on hand at Maryville Drug Co.

Guaranteed Relief for Dizzy Spells

It's FREE if It Fails

When your head whirls and everything around you is swimming, when the ground itself seems to rock beneath your feet, take a tablespoonful of Dore's Moutha Pepsin.

It settles your head like magic—puts you back on your feet—stops any nausea—makes you feel better all over. And it is so warm and comforting while it is going down!

Keep on taking it for a while—about a tablespoonful before your meals. If one bottle doesn't make you feel that you are getting rid of dizzy spells for good—money back.

Caugh & Evans or any responsible druggist in America sells Dore's with that guarantee.

Urges Red Cross to Be Ready For Every Emergency

as there are only two government hospitals in this area, the one at Excelsior Springs which has 301 beds and the one at Kansas City which has 200 beds. Provision is being made now for an 800-bed hospital at Leavenworth, Mr. Brody said. The mental patients have to be sent to other areas, and these cases are the ones which are causing a problem. Through the Kansas City office, the government has loaned over $12,000,000, to ex-serve men on their 50 per cent of the adjusted certificate, Mr. Brody said. He told the workers that the office has paid out in compensation alone this year over $3,000,000 and said the estimate for next year was $5,000,000, showing how the disability compensation is increasing. Jack Ford, Jimmie Wells, and Walter Wade, Boy Scouts, gave a first aid demonstration at 11 o'clock this morning.

Program of Meeting

The program of the Regional meeting was as follows:

10 a. m.—Rev. Willard M. Wickizer, 10:15 a. m.—"The Red Cross in Our Country," by Miss Edith E. Miller, assistant to manager of Midwestern division.

11 a. m.—First aid demonstration by three Boy Scouts, Walter Wade, Jack Ford and Jimmie Wells.

Fugitive Woman Told Brother of Trunk Murders

nullified today when a physician identified himself to police as a man seen at the women's apartment here last Friday by a grocer boy. The boy had identified a picture of Dr. W. C. Judd, under technical arrest in Los Angeles as the visitor.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR MRS. WINNIE JUDD

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 20.—(P)—Harry Ruppellus, 17-year-old grocery wagon driver, identified today as a picture of Dr. William C. Judd as that of a man he saw last Friday afternoon in the apartment of Mrs. Agnes Anne Lerol and Miss Hedvig Samuelson, missing Phoenix women whose bodies are believed to have been those found in trunks in the Los Angeles Southern Pacific railway station.

Shots Were Heard.

Investigators found also a witness who heard shots in the apartment of Mrs. Lerol and Miss Samuelson Friday night and obtained evidence from transfer company employees of the moving of "an excessively heavy trunk" Saturday night from the Lerol-Samuelson apartment to the home of Mrs. Judd.

County Attorney Lloyd J. Andrews issued a warrant today charging Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd, John Doe and Jane Doe with first degree murder in the slaying of Miss Samuelson; and a second warrant charging Mrs. Judd alone with the slaying of Mrs. Lerol.

Border Points Watched.

On the possibility that Mrs. Judd might have boarded a train to flee from the state, police made a belated attempt to search trains running to the east and it was at Yuma that two railroad operatives found the woman they believed to be Mrs. Judd, only to be forced to free the suspect when she disproved the identification.

At border Mexican points a vigilant watch was kept. Police learned that Mrs. Judd once lived in Mexico and they saw a possibility that she might attempt to cross into foreign territory.

Find Strange Letter.

Officers here were informed that Mrs. Judd had lived with the two women or had been associated with them in Phoenix.

In Mrs. Judd's apartment at Phoenix was found a letter to her signed W. C. J. her husband's initials, saying:

"I don't want to write a letter to lie around for Sammy (Miss Samuelson's nickname) and Miss Lerol to read," said the letter. "I hope you will let me know as soon as you can what the chances are of your clinic closing or your doctors quitting. I hate to think of you being alone."

"I had supposed that you thought so much of those two girls that you would be perfectly happy with them, but if you are not its puts a different face on matters."

Tells of Hauling Trunks.

"I am not at all surprised at what you tell me. I do not care to write you freely because you are careless with letters."

H. U. Grimm, owner of an apartment in which Mrs. Judd had lived, said he had taken the two trunks to the Phoenix station Sunday afternoon at Mrs. Judd's request and that she had accompanied him and checked them to Los Angeles.

Grim said Mrs. Judd explained the unusual weight of the trunks by saying they were full of books.

RICHARD DIX TO MARRY

Movie Actor Will Wed Daughter of Wealthy San Franciscan.

Los Angeles, Oct. 20.—(P)—Richard Dix and Miss Winifred Coe, 23, daughter of Winfield Scott Coe, wealthy retired wholesale grocer of San Francisco, plan to be married, probably in December.

Their engagement was revealed in a studio announcement.

Illinois Bank Is Robbed.

Alton, Ill., Oct. 20.—(P)—Two masked men, both armed with pistols, held up the Brighton State Bank at Brighton, about 6 miles north of here, a short time after it opened today and escaped with $3,600 in cash, fleeing in an automobile driven by a third man.

A Cold

Colds are common because people are careless. Prompt use of aspirin will always check a cold. Or relieve your cold at any stage. And genuine aspirin can't hurt you. Take two tablets of Bayer Aspirin at the first indication of a cold, and that's usually the end of it. If every symptom hasn't disappeared in a few hours, repeat. Bayer Aspirin does not depress the heart. Take enough to give complete relief. And if your throat is sore, dissolve three tablets in water and gargle away all soreness. In every package of genuine Bayer Aspirin are proven directions for colds, headaches, sore throat, neuralgia, neuritis. Millions who used to suffer from these things have found winter comfort in aspirin.

THE "HIDDEN QUART"

That Stays up in the Motor and Never Drains Away

PROVES ANY OIL WOULD BE BETTER OIL IF GERM PROCESSED

Other good oils lubricate working parts after the motor starts and oil is pumped from the crankcase through the motor, which takes several minutes. But Germ Processed Oil stays up in your motor at all times and lubricates working parts safely during the starting period... when almost half of all motor wear takes place! A "hidden quart" stays up in your motor and never drains away. Only Germ Processed Oil can give you this sure protection at all times, because only Germ Processed Oil can penetrate and combine with metal surfaces... an exclusive characteristic called "penetrative lubricity." So you can see... any oil would be better oil if Germ Processed!

But only Conoco makes Germ Processed Oil... for Conoco owns exclusive patent rights for North America. Don't be confused with oil that lacks the germ process. Stop at any station displaying the Conoco Red Triangle and fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. Save your motor from wear... keep it young and powerful!

Local Druggists Supplied With Free Sample Packages of Two New Vick Products

Desire of Makers That Every User of Vicks VapoRub Have a Free Trial of New Vicks Nose and Throat Drops and Vicks Medicated Cough Drops.

RESULT OF RESEARCH
New Discovery Makes Possible New
Vick Plan of Home-Control of Colds.

REDUCES "COLDS-TAX"

A quarter century ago Vicks VapoRub introduced the modern and better method of treating colds—externally. Now, Vicks Chemists develop a new preparation—Vicks Nose & Throat Drops—based on a new idea in preventing colds. A perfectly new VapoRub, it makes possible the new Vick Plan for better control of colds in the home—and further reduction of the family "Colds-Tax."

Here is the plan:
1.—Before a Cold Starts.
On exposure to colds or any of the causes that ordinarily lead to colds—crowded indoor places—stuffy, poorly ventilated rooms—sudden temperature changes—wet and cold—that slow down the normal functioning of the nose, Nature's marvelous "first line of defense against colds"—use Vicks Drops promptly. Or, if a cold actually threatens—when you feel that first stuffy, sneezy irritation of the nasal passages—a few drops up each nostril, and many annoying colds will be avoided.

2.—When a Cold Strikes.
Use the convenient Vicks Drops during the day—anytime, any place—as often as needed for comfort and relief. At bedtime, rub Vicks VapoRub well over throat and chest and cover with warm flannel. Leave bed-clothing loose around the neck so the medicated vapors can be inhaled all night long. This Vick Plan gives you a full 24-hour treatment. (If there is a cough, you will like another new Vicks product—Vicks Cough Drops—actually medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub.)

Free Trial Packages Free.
In order that every user of Vicks VapoRub may try the two new Vick products now being introduced, a supply of free trial packages of each has been sent to every druggist in the United States. Go to your druggist today and ask for yours. If, by any chance his supply is exhausted, send us the top of a Vicks VapoRub carton or coupon from the VapoRub directions folder—and we will mail free samples direct to you, together with a folder on the new Vick Plan for Control of Colds in the home. Address: Vicks Chemical Co., 1001 Milton St., Greensboro, N. C.

"Give me Lucky Strike Every Time"

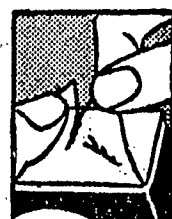

"My throat is all important to me. No harsh irritants for yours truly. Give me Lucky Strike every time. And pat yourself on the back for your new Cellophane wrapper with that tab which makes the package so easy to open."

Dorothy Mackaill

Dorothy Mackaill is the same fascinating, rollicking personality in real life as the parts she plays. Watch for Dorothy in her next First National Picture, "Safe in Hell." There is never a dull moment in any of First National's pictures starring that Mackaill girl.

That LUCKY tab! Moisture-Proof Cellophane. Sealed tight—Ever right. The Unique Humidor Package. Zip—And it's open! See the new notched tab on the top of the package. Hold down one half with your thumb. Tear off the other half. Simple. Quick. Zip! That's all. Unique! Wrapped in dust-proof, moisture-proof, germ-proof Cellophane. Clean, protected, neat, FRESH!—what could be more modern than LUCKIES' improved Humidor package—so easy to open! Ladies—the LUCKY TAB is—your finger nail protection.

*Is Miss Mackaill's Statement Paid For?

You may be interested in knowing that not one cent was paid to Miss Mackaill to make the above statement. Miss Mackaill has been a smoker of LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes for 6 years. We hope the publicity given will be as beneficial to her and to First National, her producer, as her endorsement of LUCKIES is to you.

Made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of many Crops—LUCKY STRIKE alone offers the throat protection of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays—the process that expels certain harsh, biting irritants naturally present in every tobacco leaf. These expelled irritants are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. "They're out—so they can't be in!" No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

Plan of Meeting Differs From That of Former Years

Teachers Will Be Here Two Days Instead of Three as Formerly.

Officials of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association have made a change this year in the convention plans in that the meetings will be confined to two days, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 22-23, instead of three days as heretofore.

The convention will be concluded Friday afternoon, thus enabling the teachers to see the football game that night between Maryville and the Rolla Miners.

In order that the entire program may be concluded in the two days' time, two general sessions will be in progress at the same time on Thursday afternoon and evening, and the departmental sessions will be in progress both Thursday and Friday afternoons.

A Strong Program.
The fact that the DeWolf Hopper players will give two performances, Thursday afternoon and evening at the College auditorium, has crowded the program. However, the educational sessions will be held in the First Christian church at the same time Mr. Hopper and his players are giving their entertainment.

An especially strong program has been arranged this year for the Teachers of Northwest Missouri and there are several high-lights of the convention which everyone will want to attend. One of the most entertaining readers of the time, Mr. Hopper, will appear in person, and the teachers have the opportunity of hearing him either Thursday afternoon or evening.

The state superintendent of the department of public schools, Chas. A. Lee, is on the program for 9:30 o'clock.

He will be followed by John L. Bracken of Clayton, who is president of the State Teachers Association.

N. E. A. President Here.
The Association again will have the privilege of hearing the president of the National Education Association. Through the efforts of Uel W. Lamkin, past president of the N. E. A., the Association presidents for the last several years have attended the Northwest Teachers Convention. This year Miss Florence Hale of Augusta, Me., is the president of the N. E. A. She will be introduced on Thursday morning, and at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon will give an address at the Christian church. She will again give an address before the general session at 8 o'clock that night.

Miss Hale also will speak to the rural and elementary teachers and county superintendents at a combined session 1:45 o'clock Thursday at the Christian church. This meeting will be concluded before division II of the second general session will open at the church.

Naturalist Will Speak.
T. E. Musselman, naturalist, of Quincy, Ill., is on the program for 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Christian church and will address the high school section Thursday afternoon in Social Hall.

Dr. A. Lincheld, president of the Teachers College at Ada, Okla., will give an address at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning.

Northwestern Is Probable Winner of Big Ten Race

Wildcats Meet Ohio State Saturday—Iowa Takes on Minnesota.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—(P)—With the other summer-book favorites, Michigan and Purdue, belted out of the championship scheme, Northwestern is faced with the rather unique situation of reaching the climax of its big ten season in its first game.

The Wildcats' scoring practice games have devoted their first three dates to battles with Nebraska, Notre Dame and the University of California's southern branch. Saturday they will tackle as their first conference foe Ohio State, and they probably will not encounter anything tougher than the Buckeyes on the rest of their schedule.

If Northwestern gets by Ohio State, there appears to be nothing to prevent another perfect record. Of the remaining four teams on the Wildcat schedule, only Illinois right now appears capable of causing trouble. Minnesota, Indiana and Iowa, which follow, should be easy for the Wildcats.

Injuries Hamper Purdue
A victory for Ohio would not end the Buckeyes' serious troubles, for they must meet Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin. Either the Illini or the Badgers, and especially the latter after what they did to Purdue last week, might upset the Ohio applecart.

Both Ohio and Northwestern employ the double wingback system of offense and the contest probably will be decided in favor of the club with the strongest line. Northwestern's forwards have been rated as the equal of anything in the Midwest, while the work of the Ohio line against Michigan's veteran wall marked it as a pushover for no opponent.

Injuries have dimmed Purdue's hope of scoring a victory for the west over Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh this week. Wisconsin is ripe for a big attempt to make it two in a row over Pennsylvania Saturday. Indiana and Iowa emerged from their scoreless tie in good shape. The Hoosiers are to meet Chicago Saturday.

Notre Dame Works Out
Iowa will battle Minnesota, but does not figure to win, the Gophers having had two weeks during which to prepare for the contest.

Michigan's unexpected defeat by Ohio State has caused Fielding H. Yost to come out of semi-retirement and take a more active part in assisting Harry Kipke prepare for Saturday's match with Illinois. Illinois is still somewhat of a mystery, Bob Zupke not having had time to get his sophomores ready for their best.

Notre Dame has not permitted the 63 to 0 march against Drake to make any difference in preparation for Pittsburgh. Coach Hunk Anderson yesterday passed up the regular Monday rest to give his line a thorough going over in anticipation of its meeting with Pitt's powerful forwards.

Stribling Knocks Out New York Heavyweight

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 20.—(P)—W. L. "Young" Stribling, Georgia heavy-weight, who was stopped by Max Schmelling, world champion, at Cleveland in July, celebrated his return to the ring by knocking out Salvatore Ruggirello in the second round of a 10-round bout here last night.

Ruggirello, a 198-pound New York fighter, was dropped to the canvas four times in the brief encounter. Stribling's hair was not disarranged. He weighed 184½.

The only blow to reach the Georgian was a weak right to the head as they came out for the second round. Then Stribling countered with a right, also to the head, to end the fight.

Pickering and Clearmont, Both Undefeated, Meet

For the title "the only undefeated outdoor basketball team in Midway county this year." That is what the Pickering high school Ponies and the Clearmont high school Tigers will be fighting for tomorrow night at Pickering.

The Ponies, under the tutelage of Coach Floyd Billingsley, have won 13 games so far this fall and have not dropped any. The Tigers, under Coach John H. King, have won six games and lost none. Both teams are composed of veterans of one or two years service.

One of the peculiar things about the game is that each coach will be trying to defeat his home team. Coach Billingsley is from Clearmont, although superintendent and coach at Pickering, while Coach King is from Pickering, although a teacher and coach in the Clearmont high school. The game should be real battle.

Former Bearcat and Savoldi on Wrestling Card

Leonard Lewis, 240 pound former tackle on the Bearcat football team, at the State Teachers College here, will wrestle George Wells, a policeman at St. Joseph, in a curtain raiser at the wrestling show which will start at 8:15 o'clock tomorrow night at the Auditorium in St. Joseph. There are four events on the card for tomorrow night, with "Jumping Joe" Savoldi, former Notre Dame football luminary, taking Chief Joe Allen of Pawhuska, Okla., in the feature.

Following the Lewis-Wells affair, Abe Codeman, claimant of the Jewish title, will wrestle Homer "Bearcat" Wright in the preliminary. This will be a one fall match with a half-hour time limit.

Iowa State Will Meet Tigers in Conference Tilt

Kansas City, Oct. 20.—(P)—The type of competition Bix Six teams may expect from Iowa State should be disclosed Saturday when the Cyclones meet their initial 1931 conference test in Missouri.

Thus far the Iowans have been a mystery aggregation, with no competition to place their strength on a comparative basis with other eleven in the loop. The Cyclones after victories over Simpson and Morningside, lost to Detroit University. Although withdrawals and injuries have robbed the Cyclones of some material, George Veenker, the new coach, may have some surprises in store for his brother mentors.

As Coach Gwinn Henry opened practice for the Ames invasion, he found encouragement in the fact that the Tigers were in better condition than at any other time this season. The Misourians, losers in three starts, probably will be led by Capt. Frank Bittner, who has been out with injuries for two weeks.

Meanwhile the Nebraska Huskers were given a light drill to start serious preparations for the Kansas tilt. At the Jayhawkers camp, Earl Foy, a tackle, was missing as the flock sought to 36, died yesterday from injuries he suffered when dynamite exploded while he was working out poll taxes on a road near St. James.

Coaches at Oklahoma and Kansas State, whose teams meet to complete the All-Conference schedule next weekend, lost no time in getting down to work. Coach Ad Lindsey directed his Sooners in offensive drill in an effort to find a scoring punch, absent against Texas. Paul Young, veteran center, the only casualty, is expected to be in shape by Saturday. At Manhattan, Coach A. N. McMullin directed a light signal drill on a set of new plays. Eldon Auker, a back, and Adolph Hrabka, a guard, were injured in the Kansas tilt, but probably will see action against the Sooners.

Tommy Loughran Jabs Way to Victory Over Risko

Philadelphia, Oct. 20.—(P)—Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia heavyweight, left jabbed his way to his third victory over Johnny Risko, Cleveland speller of near-champions, last night in the ten-round feature of the Arena card. It was Tommy's eleventh straight win and placed him in line for a battle with Jack Sharkey for the right to meet Herr Max Schmeling.

Only in the seventh did Risko win a round, and then by slipping across a few head blows in addition to body punches he swung throughout the battle.

Loughran weighed 185, Risko, 198½.

American League May Use National Loop Ball

Chicago, Oct. 20.—(P)—When the 1932 major league season rolls around the American League may be using the style of baseball adopted by the National League last season.

President William Harbridge is collecting opinions and comment and at the annual meeting of the league next month, may recommend a change to the sphere with the embossed seams and thicker hide. The junior circuit last year changed from the old rabbit ball to one with raised seams, but with the same cover.

No Penalty For Cutting Classes at Illinois. U.

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 20.—(P)—The University of Illinois has taken another step toward liberalism.

The University Senate late yesterday not only abolished the penalty for over cutting classes, but also put the control of student morals in the hands of a newly created discipline committee.

Campus morals were previously supervised by Dean Thomas Arkle Clark. He retired with the new academic year. Under the new system, Fred H. Turner, who succeeded him, will be concerned only with administrative duties.

Deans of the various colleges, which make up the discipline committee, only will have power to act in matters of morals. Students were formerly automatically dropped from classes as failures for over-cutting ten per cent of their classes on any particular subject. Under the new system students may cut as many classes as they wish providing they do not impair their standing.

Daily Bible Thought
A GREAT SCHOOL MASTER—
O God, thou hast taught me from my youth; and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works—Psalm 71:17.

A BOY NEEDS A DOG
The fondness of a small boy for a dog is proverbial. And the magazine, The New Yorker, recently illustrated it with a little anecdote.

A youngster has just returned home after a summer at a boys' camp. When his parents asked him if he were not glad to be back he shook his head meditatively; then he added, "But some of the fellows were—they've got dogs." All of which, somehow, is a reminder that the fate of the lad who lives in a city is apt to be a hard one, from the dog-owning aspect. For the city is no place for a dog. The boy whose parents have established their home in an apartment cannot have a dog; or, if he does, half the fun of it will be missing, since dogs were designed by nature to accompany small boys on those aimless rambles through woodland and meadow which are the priceless heritage of all boys lucky enough to live in or near the open country.

Yet that isn't the dog's only function. Chiefly he is a comforter; and while the woes of the world may not seem to rest very heavily on the average boy's shoulders, anyone who can recall his own boyhood will remember that there can be moments in which a lad of 10 or 12 is the most melancholy mortal alive.

These spells of melancholy usually come from trivial causes—such as failure to "make" a neighborhood football team, or the loss of a prized knife, or a sudden harsh word from an adult. But while they last they are extremely real, and if a youngster hasn't someone to turn to he has a pretty bad hour or so.

And there is where the dog does his best work. The small boy is inarticulate; he can't explain things so that any grown-up can understand, and there isn't much any grown-up can say that will do much good. But a dog can do the job in jig time.

For the dog doesn't need to be told what is the matter, and he has no good advice to hand out. He is simply there, with a wagging tail and a wet nose; and in a few minutes the boy feels better and perceives that life, after all, is worth living.

AFTER 40 bowel trouble

Constipation may very easily become chronic after forty. And any continued constipation at that time of life may bring attacks of piles and a host of other unpleasant disorders.

Watch your bowels at any age. Guard them with particular care after forty. Whenever they need any help, remember a doctor should know what is best for them.

"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin" is a doctor's prescription for the bowels. Tested by 47 years' practice, it has been found thoroughly effective in relieving constipation and its ills for men, women and children of all ages. It has proven perfectly safe even for babies. Made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients, it cannot gripe; will not sicken you or weaken you; can be used without harm as often as your breath is bad, or when your tongue is coated; whenever a headachy, bilious, gassy condition warns of constipation.

That is the sort of thing that the city chap is apt to miss. If the world were shaped to boyhood's liking there would be room for a dog in every house.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

WHERE A LIFT MEANS MUCH

From The Christian Science Monitor

An editor's mail may not contain so many pleas for help as that of a welfare agency or a millionaire, but it includes enough to give a poignant picture here and there of just what economic stress means in human terms—of hopes disappointed, ambitions deferred—and of what ardor could be revived by an encouraging hand here and there.

Two examples will tell the story. From a town in the northeastern corner of Ohio comes an account of a young man who has earned his way through all but one year of university by working nights as a bookkeeper but who has hunted unavailingly this year to find any work which will enable him to complete his education. His stepfather is said to be a Communist, and though his mother has helped him stand out against that influence, they are beginning to be affected by it. From a professional man in Boston comes a plea for a boy of high character, ambitious to be useful, who made honor marks in high school and is eager to enter college. His parents, struggling to bring up other children can help him no further.

Almost any reader who would like to help in such cases as these can find counterparts of them in his own community. Or the registrar of nearly any college or university can advise him how to assist deserving students. So far as employment is concerned, the man with a family unquestionably has first claim, but certainly a close second where any work can be provided, is the boy or girl earning an education. Contributions, just now to university or college scholarship funds, student loan funds, or personal loans to individuals to enable them to carry on their studies, will yield especially big returns in good citizenship.

20 Looking Back Twenty Years 20

The owners of the barber shops in Maryville held a meeting Monday evening in Friend's barber shop for the purpose of getting together on prices in barbering. As it is now there are four shops that have made a reduction in the prices of a hair cut and other barbering work, while the other four shops have maintained the same old rate. Nothing was done except that the meeting turned into a great talking bee.

A loss of $4,000, with only $1,500 insurance to replace it, was entailed by a fire which destroyed the barn and silo of J. H. Caldwell, four miles north of Burlington Junction, Monday afternoon. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Caldwell about noon.

Mr. Caldwell is a raiser of thoroughbred horses and succeeded in saving all of his valuable animals that were in the barn at the time the fire broke out. The stock barn was valued at $3,000, contents about $300 and the silo at about $200.

Three prisoners that had been locked up in the city jail during the fair week, escaped Saturday night. No effort was made to go after the prisoners as the city authorities believed that it was a good thing for them to get out of town.

GUILTY LIPS

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Pretty Norma Kent, 20-year-old secretary in a law office, marries MARK TRAVERS, son of F. M. TRAVERS, millionaire real estate dealer, after the father has sworn to cut Mark off with out a penny if the marriage takes place. Norma has known Mark only few weeks but did not know during the courtship that he was a millionaire's son. The story opens in Marlboro, middle western metropolis. CHRISTINI SAUNDERS, with whom Norma shares an apartment, and BRADLEY HART, Chris's employer, are witnesses at the wedding. Before this Norma has repeatedly refused to marry BOB FARRELL, young lawyer of whom she is fond as a friend.

Mark sells his expensive roadster to get money for the honeymoon trip. He and Norma depart for Blue Springs fashionable resort. As the train speeds south Mark tells her there is something he has forgotten to mention.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER 38

Farrell looked at the girl. "What do you want me to do?" he said.

"I want you to help me, Bob. Something's got to be done—and done right away. If Norma doesn't begin to take an interest in something—begin to care a little bit what's going on around her—the doctor says it will affect her health. I've tried and tried and it's no use! She doesn't want to go anywhere. If we stay at home she'll sit and sometimes not say more than a dozen words all evening."

"But I don't see that there's anything I can do."

"Yes, you can, Bob. Norma's always liked you. She likes to hear about the things you do and what's going on in your office. If you'd drop around once in a while that way you'd used to I'm sure it would help. Just say you happened to be in the neighborhood and thought you'd stop in or something of the sort."

Farrell flushed slightly. "I'd do anything I could to help you, Chris," he said, "but I don't think Norma wants to see me."

"Don't you come out once—just once—and see if it doesn't work the way I think it will?"

"Why, or course, if you want me to." "How about tomorrow night?"

"That'll be all right with me. By the way, what about these doctor bills? Is she going to need money?"

"Not now. Dr. Willoughby's keeping his charge down. I think he's sorry for Norma. Saw her that first day, you know, when she fainted in the office. But she'll have to borrow after while. Won't take a cent of course, but I've persuaded her it's all right to accept it and pay it back later."

"Let me take care of that. How much is it going to cost?"

"About $250, I guess, with the hospital and everything. I couldn't let you pay all of it, Bob, but I'll admit I've been wondering how I was going to dig up that much."

"Then don't worry about it any longer. I'll write a check right now. Farrell pulled out a fountain pen and reached for his check book."

"Not now," Chris told him. "I don't need the money now and I wouldn't want the responsibility of keeping it. I'll let you know when the bills begin to come in. It's fine of you to wa—"

His name is Allan Hoover and this is his first job. He is President Hoover's second son.

Washington—The train is in again it has nothing to do with travel except that it may hamper locomotion somewhat. It is part of the gowns society debs and dowagers are planning for the social season in the capital.

Prague, Czechoslovakia—Prince Michael of Rumania has decided that when he grows up he will be an airplane pilot like his uncle Nicholas. His decision was made after his uncle took him for a ride over Bucharest. He will be ten years old Oct. 25.

Minneapolis—Henry Ford is helping the farmers hang onto their potatoes until the market improves. Ford company officials have turned an abandoned assembly plant into a storage house where thousands of bushels can be stored. Unsold potatoes are selling for 25 cents bushel.

Harrisburg—John Jackson was on trial for stealing a ham from a p. of boiling sauerkraut. The court charged at the jury thusly: "The ham was there; the defendant was there; the ham was gone; the defendant was gone." John was convicted.

to do this, Bob."

"Why shouldn't I? It's—well, it's just a little thing. By the way, you won't mention the fact to Norma, will you? Please don't!"

Chris nodded. "I'll tell her the money is a loan," she said, "and she'll think it's all from me. When she begins to pay it back I'll turn the cash over to you."

"You're going to see that she has everything?"

"Everything she needs. Dr. Willoughby says she's getting along splendidly if it only weren't for these moods of depression."

"There was a pause and then Farrell asked, 'Has she heard anything at all from Travers?'"

"You mean Mark? Not a word. Wouldn't you think he'd be ashamed of himself? And nothing from his family either. Of course that was to be expected. Oh, Bob, to think I stood by and let her marry that good-for-nothing! It makes me wild when I think of that. I might have known it would end this way!"

"There was no way for you to know that," Farrell said thoughtfully. "Or for anyone else to know it either. Well, if you say so I'll stop in tomorrow night. For a few minutes anyway." He noticed the waitress coming toward them and added, "What are you going to have for dessert?"

They gave their attention to the menu. By the time their orders were set before them three other diners had taken the nearest table. There was no longer opportunity to talk privately. A little later they left the restaurant and boarded a street car. Bob left Chris at the door of the apartment building.

There was a crack of light showing beneath the door as Chris climbed the dark stairs. She slipped her key into the lock, called out "Yoo-who!" and entered.

No one was in the room. Chris glanced about, hurried to the alcove where the two studio beds stood. Norma lay there sound asleep, one arm out over the covers and the other pillowed beneath her head. Her hair was tossed back from her face. A silken strap had slipped out of place, revealing a smoothly rounded, ivory shoulder. A faint tinge of color glowed in her cheeks and the dark lashes, shadowed seemed longer than they were.

Chris stood quietly looking down at the other girl. Norma's breathing was deep and regular. Cautiously Chris got to her knees. Yes, just as she had expected. The pillow, beneath Norma's cheek was damp from tear drops. One more night when the girl had cried herself to sleep. Softly Chris tiptoed away and arranged the screen so that light from the lamp could not awaken Norma.

There was no indication that Bob Farrell's call the next evening was anything but the casual visit he made it out to be. The two girls were washing dishes when the bell rang. Norma went to answer it and admitted Bob. She apologized, explained dinner had been late. Bob called for a tea towel and volunteered to help but his offer was refused.

In five minutes the last of the dishes were out of sight. Norma remembered one of the windows had taken on an irremovable stubbornness and could not be raised. Would Bob fix it? Of course he would. He did.

"You know," Farrell said as he dropped into the arm chair, "a fellow came into the office today with one of the razzle-dazzle I've ever heard of. It's a fellow who lives in Laurel Park. Do you know what he's up against?"

"I wouldn't even try to guess," said Chris. "What's his difficulty?"

"Well, Laurel Park has its own city government, you know. They've paved a new street and this man—Perkins is his name—owns a house on the block but when he bought his property, the owner retained a strip a foot wide between the house and street. When they came around with the paving proposition Perkins refused to pay for the strip in front of his home, saying he didn't own the frontage. Nobody could persuade him to buy that foot of land. Well, the paving's in now and the Laurel Park council has ruled that if Perkins stands over that foot of ground umps over it or crosses it in any way he will be subject to arrest. The man came to us to see what he could do about it."

"Why, how perfectly silly!"

"Maybe, but he's had to come and go

OUT OUR WAY

A BORN LEADER.

by the back door and alley drive for a week now. And he's pretty sick of it. Everybody else can use the street and sidewalk. You see he has a legal right to be on his own property. He has the same legal right as anyone else to be on the street. What he can't do is cross from one to the other."

Norma was smiling. "Are you going to help him, Bob?"

"Oh, there's really nothing much for Perkins to do but come across and buy that land. It's just a case of mullishness. He's made up his mind he won't. Someone else made up their minds that he would. It's not my worry though. Bill Kennedy's handling it. He was telling me about the thing just before I left the office. Just one of these freak affairs that pop up every now and then."

"I remember Mr. Brooks told me about something like that once—"

Norma said meditatively. She related sketchy details of a legal controversy involving a picket fence.

They sat in the comfortable living room and talked for three-quarters of an hour. Then Farrell arose and said he must be leaving.

"Come to see us again soon," Chris urged as he stood with one hand on the doorknob. Norma added, "Yes, do!"

"Thanks. Be glad to. Well—good night!"

There was no doubt that Chris' plan to take Norma's mind from her worries had succeeded. Norma was more like her old self for the rest of the evening.

A week later when Bob called to see if the two girls were at home he promised them a surprise. Over the telephone he refused to explain further but half an hour later he led them proudly to the apartment window and pointed to the street. There before the entrance was a shiny coupe.

"Oh, Bob!—it is yours?"

"Why Bob?"

"Nice looking little bus, isn't it?" he said grinning. "Got the chance to buy it at a bargain and it was too good to refuse. Picks up speed, too! Well—would you like to try it?"

Both girls exclaimed with enthusiasm when they inspected the car at close range. It was small, of inexpensive make but it had trim lines. Farrell was like a school boy displaying a new toy.

He helped the girls inside and took the wheel. They drove for an hour and a half. April had been a cool month but there was the scent of spring in the air. Bob circled the car through a park it was the same park Norma had found so inviting the day she had shopped for the Thanksgiving dinner. Trees were unfurling their fresh green leaves now. The little leaves could not keep out the moonlight but they made the boughs seem heavier. Two weeks before the leaves had not been there.

"Bob," said Norma softly, "I think we should go back now."

"O. K. Just as you say."

He did not go inside when they reached the apartment but nodded a cheerful good night at the door.

"Take another spin some of these times?" Farrell asked.

"We'll be glad to," Chris told him and Norma agreed. Then they went into the building.

On a Sunday afternoon 10 days later Farrell took the girls for a second drive. Then as the days became warmer he dropped into the habit of coming around oftener. The second week in May there was a terrific and unseasonable hot spell. A drive in the open country after sunset was a blessed relief. Bob's coupe drew up before the apartment almost every evening.

Always the three of them went together. It was natural enough because Chris and Norma spent almost every evening in each other's company. When Bob was with them Chris found relief from the constant strain of keeping Norma's thoughts diverted.

Dr. Willoughby mentioned the fact that his patient seemed in better spirits.

June arrived. Norma gave up her work in Stuart's office and a girl whom Chris knew, a capable stenographer out of work since the office in which she worked cut its force, took over her duties. About the same time Norma told Chris she thought Bob should discontinue coming to the apartment. Chris relayed this suggestion to Farrell and the automobile drives ceased.

June proved a warm month and July brought three weeks of scorching heat. Chris postponed her vacation so that she could be with Norma. They were hard, wearing days with the sun beating down on hot pavements from morning until evening and the nights offered a little respite. They were hard days for Norma and hard days for Chris.

The last week in August had been set for Norma to go to the hospital. The two girls were sitting before the open window trying to get a breath of cool air one evening early in the month. There was no light in the room because light attracted insects. Norma reached for Chris' hand and held it tightly.

"Chris," she said slowly, "there's something I want you to promise me!"

Giant Hydro-Electric Plant Begins Operating

St. Louis, Oct. 20.—(AP)—The hydroelectric plant of the Union Electric Light and Power Company of St. Louis on the Osage river at Bagnell, Mo., built at a cost of $30,000,000, now is in commercial operation.

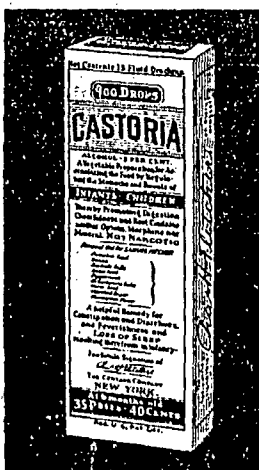

Louis H. Egan, president of the company, announced last night that the project had been subjected to various tests for the last two months and all details were found to be satisfactory. The building of Bagnell dam created the huge Lake of the Ozarks, with a shore line of more than 1,400 miles in central Missouri. The gates of the dam were closed last February and the Osage slowly backed up, flooding surrounding country in Camden, Morgan, Miller and Benton counties. The former site of Linn Creek, once county seat of Camden county, is entirely inundated.

The hydro-electric plant develops 268,000 horsepower and the current generated is sent over high-tension lines to St. Louis and the lead mines in St. Francois county.

Cashier's Trial Opens

Poplar Bluff, Mo., Oct. 20.—(AP)—The trial of Charles E. Smith, former cashier of the closed Bank of Naylor on charges of receiving deposits in a failing institution, was started in circuit court here yesterday afternoon. The bank closed November 18, 1930, and the case was brought from Ripley county on change of venue. Three other former officials of the bank are to face similar charges.

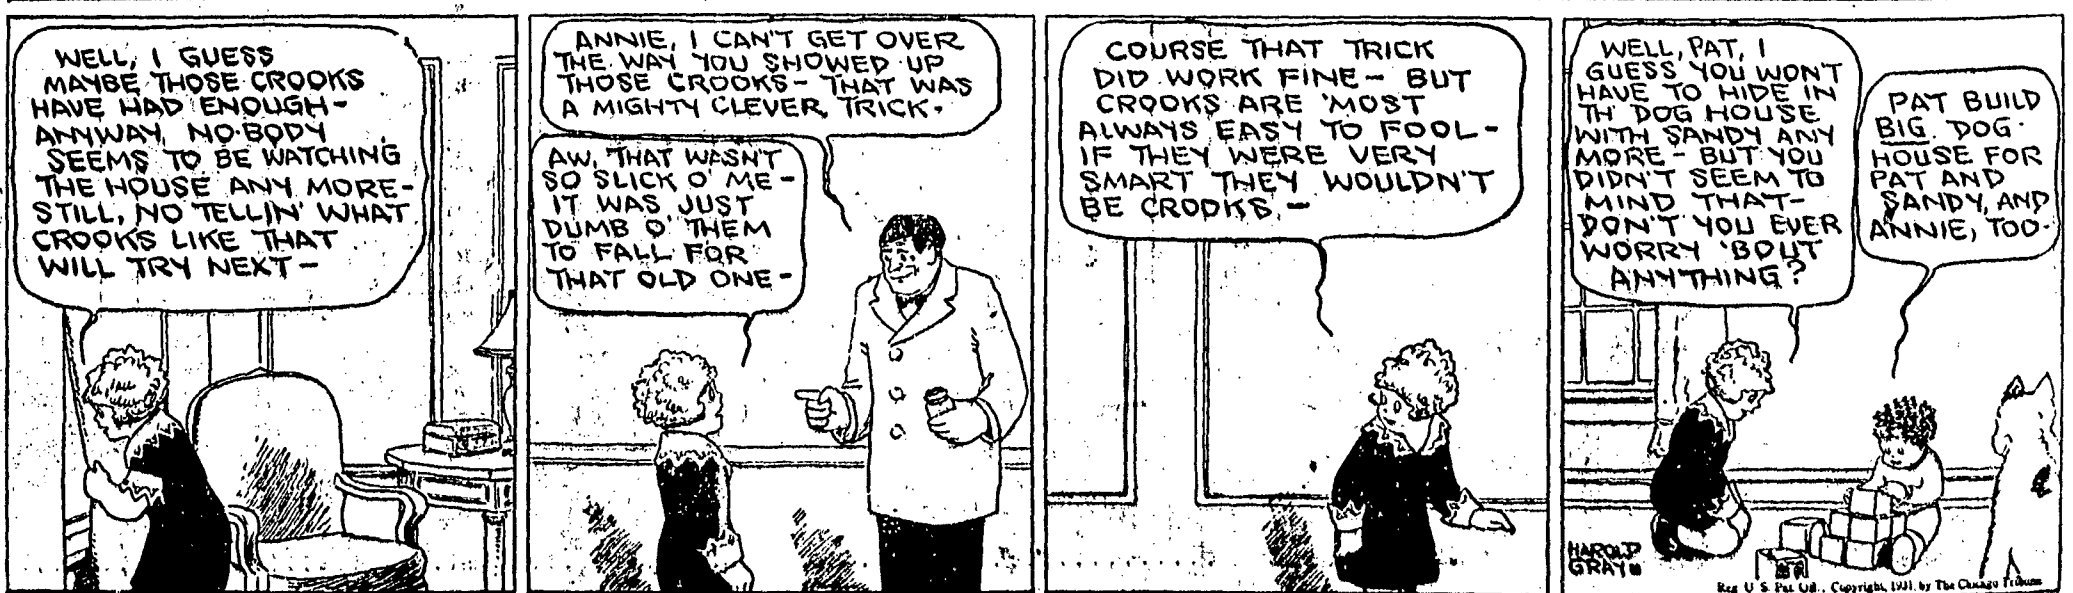

Made specially for BABIES and CHILDREN

Physicians tell us that one condition is nearly always present when a child has a digestive upset, a starting cold or other little ailment. Constipation. The first step towards relief is to rid the body of impure wastes. And for this nothing is better than genuine Castoria. Castoria is a pure vegetable preparation made specially for babies and children. This means it is mild and gentle; that it contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. Yet it always gets results! You never have to coax children to take Castoria. Real Castoria always bears the name:

MARKETS

Profit Taking in Wheat Pit Causes Decline in Price

Chicago, Oct. 20.—(P)—With wheat up about 9c a bushel from the recent low point, heavy selling to realize profits gave the markets a setback today. Prices, however, showed an evident disposition to rally when selling pressure relaxed. Material expansion of trade volume rendered it possible to fill large orders on either side without causing decided fluctuations in price.

Wheat closed unsettled 1/4c to 3/4c lower, corn unchanged to 3/4c off, oats varying from 1/4c decline to a shade advanced, and provisions 5c to 12c up, influenced by scattered buying.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—(P)—Grain prices tended downward early today after an irregular start. Unexpected lower wheat quotations from Liverpool, ascribed to surprising changes in sterling rates, had a bearish effect, despite frost reports from Argentina. Opening at 1/4c off to 1/2c up, wheat later sagged all around. Corn started unchanged to 1/4c advance and subsequently declined.

No damage by the frosts in Argentina was reported, but it was stated that if they spread northward serious injury to wheat would be probable. On the other hand, Liverpool stocks of wheat continued to increase, totaling 5,768,000 bushels larger than a year ago.

Moderate rallies from inside figures in wheat accompanied by distant commission house small lot buying of future deliveries. This buying was associated with word that the German agent who recently effected a big purchase of United States government sponsored wheat had left New York for Chicago, and that his departure west had led to suggestions of likelihood that another German-United States wheat deal was under way. Talk was current too, that farm board holdings had been much reduced to late, and were smaller than traders generally believed. Corn and oats were governed chiefly by wheat fluctuations.

City's Suit Over Bank Deposit Is Heard in Court

$10,000 Is Involved in Litigation Against Farmers Trust.

Jurors Are Selected

Preliminary Arguments Over Sum City Contents Was Carried Over From Real Estate Bank Are Heard.

The jury to hear the suit of the City of Maryville vs. the Farmers Trust Company was selected in circuit court this afternoon. Out of a panel of eighteen men, Ed Wiley, L. D. Goforth, C. A. Shunk, Charles Nicholas, R. B. Young, Oscar Anderson, Charles Shambarger, John O'Day, Earl Kelly, A. Wiley, A. A. Bonar and Charles Lewis were chosen.

Ten thousand dollars are involved in the suit. It is the city's contention that it was not given credit for $10,000 which was carried over from the Real Estate bank.

A. F. Harvey is the attorney for the City of Maryville, while Lowell Livengood of Shinabargar, Blagg and Livengood represents the defendant. E. C. McKissick, special deputy finance commissioner for the state of Missouri is assisting Mr. Livengood. Preliminary arguments were being started by Mr. Harvey at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon.

This morning the case of S. R. Carpenter, et al. vs. the Advance-Rumley Thrashing Machine company was heard. The defendant waived a jury, and the evidence was heard by the court. Judge D. D. Reeves found for the plaintiff to the amount of $138.36 at 6 per cent interest.

Other Business Transacted.
Judge Reeves disposed of the following applications without a jury:

In the matter of the Farmers State Bank of Wilcox, by S. L. Cantley, State Finance Commissioner for the state of Missouri, and H. H. Albaugh, special deputy in charge, application for authority to sell real estate sustained by the court.

In the matter of the Farmers State Bank of Wilcox, by S. L. Cantley, State Finance Commissioner for the state of Missouri, and H. H. Albaugh, special deputy in charge, application for approval of the sale of land approved by the court.

To Seize Al's Property

Capone's Troubles With U. S. Are Just Starting.

BULLETIN.
Washington, Oct. 20.—(P)—Orders have been issued by the internal revenue bureau, to place liens for back income taxes on the property of Al Capone, convicted Chicago gangster.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—(P)—Al Capone's troubles were just beginning it was indicated today as the government moved to seize whatever property he might own, adding financial worries to his already numerous legal woes.

The government estimated the scar-faced gangster owed at least $215,000 in delinquent taxes, in connection with which he was convicted of income tax law violations facing possible maximum penalty of 17 years prison sentence and fines totalling $50,000.

If Capone owned tangible assets, they would be seized to satisfy the claim, government officials said. Already under federal scrutiny was his $40,000 winter home at Palm Beach, Fla., on which he made thousands of dollars of improvements, and real estate in Chicago; alleged owned by him but denied to others.

A constant source of embarrassment to the gang leader, if the sum decided upon by the government were not paid might result, legal authorities said, because the government might attempt to seize anything Capone might own for the rest of his life.

Sentence upon the liquor, gambling and vice racket boss, probably will be pronounced Friday by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson.

Jumble-Lations

The joke, it appears, is on Fire Chief Lloyd Geist. The fire truck dashed up to the W. C. Ellison home yesterday, the hose was strung out, and the ladders placed against the walls. People rushed in and out of the house, and the firemen, wondering where the Chief might be, shouted orders back and forth. They found out shortly. Mr. Geist emerged from the basement where he had been working to learn what all the commotion was about. Said he thought it was funny there was so much noise. Mr. Geist is always on hand when there is a fire, but this is probably the first time he was present at a fire without knowing it. The other firemen are demanding reparations from John Mutz. He strung the hose to the Ellison home from the plug near the Presbyterian church, but the fire was put out entirely with chemicals. The firemen then had the extra job of re-laying the hose in the truck. We are thinking of starting a campaign against the expression "O. K." You say that will be O. K.? O. K. then. Down with O. K.

Independence Is Reported Sought by Manchurians

Observers Believe Japan Is Behind Activity of Insurgents.

BULLETIN.
Washington, Oct. 20.—(P)—America today joined in invoking the Kellogg-Briand Anti-War Pact in Manchuria.

(By The Associated Press.)
Launching of a virile movement for Manchurian independence from China was reported through Japanese sources today, shortly after Japan had shown a more conciliatory attitude at Geneva where the League of Nations discussed the Sino-Japanese controversy.

The independence move also followed Japan's discussions seeking to bring about a peaceful settlement of the dispute between China and Japan over the latter's occupation of Southern Manchuria.

Observers professed to see in various independence movements the hand of Japanese militarists and imperialists seeking Japanese domination of Manchuria without resorting to military force. The movement was headed by a Chinese general, however.

Japan's withdrawal of objection to American participation at Geneva encouraged Washington to look to the Far East for a settlement of its own difficulties. Japanese Ambassador Debuschi at Washington predicted that a few more days without hostilities would virtually assure peace.

China awaited a meeting at Shanghai of Nanking government representatives and officials of the insurgent Canton government, which was hailed as a possible means of politically uniting China so that she might face Japan with a solidarity.

Geneva, Oct. 20.—(P)—A "trader's" proposal for peace, outlined by Aristide Briand, brought marked optimism into the Manchurian discussions today as the League of Nations council entered the second week of its extraordinary session devoted to arbitration between China and Japan.

Persons in a position to know said M. Briand was suggesting steady retirement of Japanese troops in Manchuria to the railway zone; simultaneous replacement of each Japanese soldier withdrawn by two or more Chinese soldiers to secure Japanese lives and property, and "observation" of this progress by a neutral commission of military experts or civilians representing the League of Nations.

Another Giant Airship Is Ordered by U. S. Navy

Washington, Oct. 20.—(P)—Secretary Adams today authorized construction of the airship ZRS-5 and ordered that the Akron be accepted.

The ZRS-5 will cost the navy $2,450,000 and is to be delivered within fifteen months after the Akron's departure from the construction hangar. The latter ship cost the navy almost twice as much, in view of the necessity of providing construction facilities for aircraft of a size and type never before built in the United States.

Four Raiders Spray Street Near Bank With Bullets—Brother of Slain Man Is Seriously Wounded.

Menomonee, Wis., Oct. 20.—(P)—An assistant cashier and a robber were killed today as four machine gun raiders looted the Kraft State Bank of about $10,000 today.

James Kraft, 19, son of W. F. Kraft, president of the bank, was kidnaped and slain by the bandits, while W. R. Kraft, 22, another son, was wounded, perhaps seriously, because he failed to point out where more money was.

Fix Look at $10,000.
The robber was killed by shots fired at the car in which the quartet sped out of town after spraying the street near the bank with machine gun bullets.

Bank officials said a hurried check indicated the robbers took about $10,000 after overpowering sixteen persons in the bank, including six customers.

The bodies of James Kraft and the bandit were found on the highway six miles from here by possemen who followed the raiders out of town.

The younger Kraft had been shot. Officers believed he was slain in reprisal, after pursuers' bullets killed their companion.

James Kraft, at work with his brother was not missed until after the bandits fled. The latter were forced to hurry because Vernon Townsend, bank guard, set off a burglar alarm and began firing at the waiting car, where one man sat with a machine gun.

Defenseless Man Shot.
Officers believe Kraft was kidnaped in the belief having him would prevent pursuers from firing and make possible a safe escape.

W. R. Kraft, was shot in the side as he lay on the floor. The leaders of the raiders, refusing to accept his word they had all the cash, cursed and threatened, and then fired point blank at the prostrated man. Physicians believed Kraft's lung may have been punctured.

As the car sped away, one occupant was heard to cry that he was shot. Edward Trinko, who fired six shots, said he broke a window in the rear. Officers said the manner in which the bandit was wounded indicated he was the one shot as the car fled, while James Kraft was slain by the thugs.

Rev. W. H. Butler to Be Pastor of Baptist Church

Springfield Minister Will Succeed Rev. Joe P. Jacobs Here.

Rev. William H. Butler, of Springfield, Mo., has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist church here as the successor to Rev. Joe P. Jacobs. He will come to Maryville the first week in December to take over the charge.

The board of the Baptist church extended the call to Rev. Butler two weeks ago, and today received word from him that he will accept. Rev. Butler was in Maryville two weeks ago and preached at both the morning and evening services.

The Baptist church has been without a minister since the resignation of Rev. Jacobs on September 1 to become financial secretary of the Missouri Baptist Hospital in St. Louis.

The new minister is a close personal friend of Rev. Lewis Hale, and Rev. Thomas H. Willes, both of whom were formerly pastors of the Maryville Baptist church.

Rev. Butler has a wife and three daughters.

Gloomy Prophets of Past Never Seemed to Be Right

London, Oct. 20.—(P)—"They were all wrong!" is the heading over a hand bill reviewing gloomy prophecies of other days, being distributed in London. Here they are:

William Pitt said: "There is scarcely anything around us but ruin and despair."

Wilberforce in the early 1800's said: "I dare not marry, the future is so dark and unsettled."

Lord Ray, in 1810, said he believed "Everything is tending to a convulsion."

The Duke of Wellington, on the eve of his death, in 1851, thanked God he would "be spared from seeing the consummation of ruin that is gathering around us."

But, concludes the circular, "We came through all right, and shall do so again."

Fugitive Woman Told Brother of Trunk Murders

Youth Says He Aided Her to Escape After Two Bodies Were Found.

Police Trace All Clues

Corpses of Two Slain Women Had Been Shipped From Phoenix to Los Angeles in Trunks.

Los Angeles, Oct. 20.—(P)—An admission that his sister had confessed to him the killing of two companions in Phoenix, Ariz., was made today to the Associated Press by B. J. McKinnell, Los Angeles University student, and brother of the suspected slayer, Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd.

Stopping in a corridor of the homicide bureau of the police department as detectives took him to breakfast, McKinnell told his version of the discovery of the bodies of Mrs. Agnes Lerol and Miss Hedvig Samuelson, employees of a Phoenix, Ariz., clinic, in two trunks and a valise at a railroad station here yesterday.

Told Brother of Crime.
A baggage master, who saw blood seeping from one trunk demanded that it be opened. Mrs. Judd, who had arrived in Los Angeles a short time before on another train, came to the station with McKinnell to claim the baggage. She told the agent that she did not have the keys and would get them. The suspicion of the agent led him to note the license number of McKinnell's automobile and the student was arrested.

"I knew what was in those trunks" the young man said. "She told me. I can't understand why she did it. I drove her to sixth and Broadway and she got out. I gave her $5 and she disappeared in the street crowds."

Dr. W. C. Judd, husband of the woman, who appeared calm and composed under the grilling of detectives and who was taken into custody with McKinnell, said:

"I believe she was mentally deranged."

PROMISING CLUE APPEARS NULLIFIED

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 20.—(P)—A clue, which police had considered promising in their investigation of the slaying of two women whose bodies were found in trunks in Los Angeles, apparently was nullified.

Doolittle Seeks Canada-to-Mexico Air Speed Mark

Corpus Christi, Tex., Oct. 20.—(P)—Major James H. Doolittle, attempting a dawn to dusk flight from Ottawa, Ont., to Mexico City, landed here at 1:10 p. m., (CST) today.

When he landed here he had covered 1,756 miles of his 2,500 mile flight. His flying time was eight hours and 54 minutes. Two stops had been made for fuel, one in Washington and the other in Birmingham.

The flier took on 130 gallons of gasoline during a 16-minute stop here and then took off for Mexico City, approximately 700 miles to the south. He expected to reach his destination at 6:30 p. m., (CST).

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 20.—(P)—Major James H. Doolittle, on a speed flight from Ottawa to Mexico City, landed here at 9:29 a. m., (CST), and took off again seven minutes later. He covered approximately 640 miles from Washington to Birmingham in two hours, 50 minutes.

When he reached here Major Doolittle had covered 1,092 miles of his 2,500 mile flight in five hours, 24 minutes.

Says Premier Laval Will Not Consent to Armament Cut

Paris, Oct. 20.—(P)—The correspondent of the Havas Agency on the liner Ile De France said in a radio message received this morning that Premier Laval is determined to sacrifice nothing to national security in discussions of disarmament but that the position of France is unchanged and that the policy adopted is that she is ready to reduce armaments further in exchange for agreements for mutual assistance in case of a war of aggression.

France, the message said, sees no link between national security and debts and reparations and the premier will support any proposal which safeguards, at least partially, what France considers her right to reparations payments.

It was pointed out, however, that these might be paid in kind, thus helping to reduce unemployment in Germany and France by making possible the extensive public construction program recently approved by the French government.

Rail Rate Hike Denied

General Advance Is Refused; Some Increases Allowed.

Washington, Oct. 20.—(P)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today denied the railroads' request for a flat 15 per cent increase in freight rates, but suggested the roads might apply for specific increases on designated commodities upon certain conditions.

The suggested specific raises would be for a limited period and would be primarily to enable the road "to meet their fixed interest payments as they mature."

The commission attached to a list of products suggested for increases a condition that in no event should the increase levied on any carload be in excess of ten per cent of the carload charges which would be assessed in the absence of the increase.

The commodities that would be increased $3 a car if the railroads agree to a pooling arrangement include anthracite and bituminous coal, coke, ores not otherwise specified, commercial gravel and sand, all other products of mines, and lumber.

Gov. Woodring Will Speak Here Late Next Month

Kansas Executive Will Be Guest of Jefferson Club at "Love Feast."

Governor Woodring of Kansas has accepted an invitation of the Jefferson Club of this county to attend the second annual "Love Feast" of the Democratic party of this county in Maryville November 24.

Clyde Perkins of the Jefferson Club has just received confirmation of the acceptance of the invitation by Gov. Woodring.

The governor of Kansas, one of the few Democrats ever to hold that position, will speak at the Missouri theatre at 2 o'clock the afternoon of November 24.

He will be accompanied by Charles M. Howell of Kansas City, a former Atchison county resident who lived near Fairfax, who is now chairman of the Democratic state committee.

An informal dinner will be held for the distinguished guests by the Jefferson club at noon the day they are here, but the details for the luncheon have not been completed.

Columbia Aviator Dies as Result of Accident

Belleville, Ill., Oct. 20.—(P)—Alfred Dunlap, 20, Columbia, Mo., aviator, died at St. Elizabeth's hospital last night from injuries suffered Sunday when an airplane he was piloting crashed into a tree near Freeburg, Ill.

Physicians said Dunlap's death was due to a skull fracture.

For several months, Dunlap had been barnstorming with Kenneth and Walker Hunter, Sparta, Ill., fliers. He and the Hunter brothers, flying in three planes, were returning to Sparta at the time of the accident.

Dunlap is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Dunlap, of Columbia, and two sisters, Mrs. Vernon Remeley, Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. Lawrence Heron, St. Louis. Funeral services will be held at Fulton, Mo., at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

Arrives in New York

Lawrence Linville, of Skidmore, who has been touring Europe since July, arrived in New York on Sunday aboard the S. S. Berlin, which sailed from Southampton, England, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Linville. He probably will arrive home the latter part of the week. He expects to visit in Ann Arbor, Mich., with his brother, Byron Linville, a student in the Law School at the University of Michigan.

Urges Red Cross to Be Ready For Every Emergency

Miss Edith Miller Addresses Regional Meeting Here.

Many Delegates Attend

Large Number Had Signed Register By 10 O'clock Today—Worker For Veterans Bureau Speaks.

As Missouri, like other areas, is subject at times to disaster, the Red Cross chapters and members should be so informed and organized that they can respond at once to any emergency, Miss Edith Miller, assistant to the manager of the Midwestern division at St. Louis, told the Red Cross workers gathered today at the Masonic Temple for the Regional Red Cross meeting.

In making this statement, Miss Miller, the only woman to hold an executive position in this Red Cross division, was explaining the different obligations of the organization. The two main obligations are the home service—aid to the war veteran and his family—and disaster relief.

Compliments State
The other obligations, or activities, are part of the local chapter work, such as first aid, Braille, and Junior Red Cross, Miss Miller said.

She complimented this state upon the disaster relief work accomplished last year, when the nation raised more than ten million dollars. She said Missouri responded exceptionally well in helping its own unfortunates.

Among these were residents of the southeast counties of the state. Miss Miller has just returned from a regional meeting at Dexter, the center of the drought suffering last year, and she reports that the people there are optimistic about the future and are well prepared for this coming winter.

She traced the growth of the American Red Cross which now has more than four million members and said that there are approximately 3,600 chapters in the nation, or nearly one for every county.
